

222.61 Legal settlement determined.

When a county receives an application on behalf of any person for admission to a resource center or a special unit or when a court issues an order committing any person to a resource center or a special unit, the board of supervisors shall utilize the central point of coordination process to determine and certify that the legal settlement of the person is in one of the following:

1. In the county in which the application is received or court is located.
2. In some other county of the state.
3. In another state or in a foreign country.
4. Unknown.
